2024 FALL GALA - SAN FRANCISCO

OCTOBER 22, 2024 | 6:00P.M. | THE FRENCH CLUB

Aubert de Villaine, Bernard Herve and Brice de la Morandière, on behalf of Friends of Musique et Vin au Clos Vougeot (FOMV), are delighted to invite you to our 2024 Fall Gala, which will be held at the renowned French Club in San Francisco, located at 414 Mason St # 801, in San Francisco, CA 94102. The Gala is for the benefit of FOMV, a 501 (c) (3) charitable organization, and will feature dinner with a special guest chef from France, exceptional wines from Burgundy's greatest producers, a performance by outstanding musicians, and an auction of rare wines and experiences..

Our dinner will be prepared by Chef Lionel from the French Club in collaboration with Chef Jean-Michel Carrette, Chef-Owner of the acclaimed one Michelin star restaurant, Aux Terrasses in Tournus. Chef Carrette is traveling from France exclusively for this event and will prepare several special dishes just for us.

Aubert de Villaine of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and Brice de la Morandière of Domaine Leflaive have selected wines to accompany our dinner and will be present to introduce their selections and discuss them with us. They will also be joined by some special guests, and great friends of Musique et Vin, including Erwan Faiveley from Domaine Faiveley, Didier Depond from Champagne Salon, and others to be announced.

Our evening will begin with an aperitif of Champagne Delamotte Blancs de Blancs, followed by a concert. As music is central to our mission, this performance will be one of the highlights of the evening, featuring notable musicians as well as one or more of the "young talents" whose careers have been aided by FOMV, all under the direction of our Artistic Director, David Chan.

Wines to be served with dinner will include:

1997 & 2013 Champagne Salon
2018 Domaine Leflaive Puligny-Montrachet 1er Cru Les Pucelles
2019 Domaine de la Romanée-Conti Vosne-Romanée 1er Cru Cuvée Duvault-Bloch
Kongsgaard The Judge, HDV Chardonnay, Wines from Domaine Faiveley, William Selyem and more

Guests will have the opportunity to purchase a magnum of the 2022 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru, Cuvée du Roi Soleil, from Hospices de Beaune, élevé by Domaine Leflaive. This unique wine, from the superb 2022 vintage, was specially selected for Friends of Musique et Vin and will only be available to our patrons.
(1 magnum maximum per Patron)

We will conclude the night with an auction of other extraordinary wines and experiences, including Jeroboams of the 2022 Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru, Cuvée du Roi Soleil.

We hope you will join us and look forward to seeing you all in October!

ABOUT FRIENDS OF MUSIQUE ET VIN

Friends of Musique et Vin au Clos Vougeot, Inc. was founded in 2019. In the fall of 2019, its inaugural event was held at the French Consulate in New York City, where funds were raised to commission a violin by Master luthier Sam Zygmuntowicz. In the fall of 2020, during the height of Covid when all music and cultural institutions in New York City were shut down, FOMV held a virtual fundraiser and concert at the Clos Vougeot, and used a portion of the proceeds to help musicians who had lost their income. In 2022, FOMV held successful gala dinners in New York and San Francisco. In April 2023, auditions were held at Juilliard to select the musician who will perform with the violin commissioned by FOMV, retaining this special instrument on a multi-year loan basis.

The net proceeds from the 2024 San Francisco Gala will be used to further FOMV's goals of supporting musical concerts including cross-cultural exchanges including between the US and France, training and supporting young musicians, and supporting production of musical instruments to be loaned to those young musicians. Amounts received will be tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

FOMV also provides support to the French non-profit association Musique & Vin au Clos Vougeot (MVCV), including sponsorships of the final gala concerts during MVCV's annual music festival organized in Burgundy. MVCV was created in 2008 by Aubert de Villaine and Bernard Herve with an exceptional mission: to create a fusion between musicians of international fame, winegrowers and passionate collectors of Burgundy. It offers an amplified experience to its patrons - a pleasure that appeals to both the ears and the palate, around an annual, ten-day festival of wine tastings and concerts, culminating at the historic Clos Vougeot - and receives some of the biggest names in the world of music and opera. Activities of MVCV also include creation of a collection of violins, violas and cellos lent to promising young musicians; funding scholarships to young musicians for travel and lessons; and organization of an annual free public concert at "Les Halles" in Beaune promoting these young talented musicians.
